ONE OF A KIND OFFERING

The Burnham House was originally built in 1906 by legendary San Diego architect, Irving Gill. This 1,600 SF basement office space is a unique offering with a secluded courtyard and canyon views. Scarce opportunity to work from a piece of San Diego history, while enjoying privacy and ample free parking. The private courtyard offers the ability to entertain clients, host events, and enjoy San Diego's sun-rays. This opportunity is perfect for an office-user looking to stay in the middle of the city, yet enjoy both privacy and safety. First-floor walkout space directly adjacent to Balboa Park.
